What to Expect

We are hard at work preparing a variety of sessions that will enhance your program knowledge, along with ways to optimize all of the controllable variables that will help you make the most of your programs.

Event Overview

- | | |
|-----------|---|
| MORNING* | series of general sessions on the latest in Medi-Cal billing |
| LUNCH | lunch (and fun!) will be provided for all attendees |
| AFTERNOON | self-directed learning in the form of "table talks" in which you can consult with a program specialist on a myriad of topics impacting your school Med-Cal programs |

*Start times will vary depending on which program you participate in and will be confirmed in the registration confirmation email that will be sent to you.

What your colleagues had to say about last year's conferences...

"Excellent conference this year - fast paced, but extremely productive, informative, and organized."

"Conference was exceptional! The energy of the entire group was dynamic!"
